

Christmas Gift Ideas (Part 7)

This one is for the guys. Oh, they are so hard to buy for, but so easy to please.

MI-5, is a British TV series about a MI-5 team (British CIA) in the style of Bourne Identity (which my husband likes) and 24 (which he also like). I have watched one episode on YouTube and I even liked it very much. Amazon, $23.99.

David Sedaris' book, "Holidays On Ice: Stories" is a good gift for a disgruntled man, who needs a laugh during a season of shopping. Amazon, $8.99

I already told you all about The Steve McQueen Watch, by Fossil. I really want you to get this for someone.

This Rawlings Leather Duffle Bag is a great gift for a guy. I got it for Larry about 10 years ago and, just like any good leather product, it looks better with time.

Sports Accessories, $515.

Give this as a stuffing stocking stuffer:

From Knock Knock, $8. Just tear out the vouchers you don't feel like doing...

This is my Husband's big present this year, it is what he wanted:

A Tattoo from Sid's in Santa Ana.
