

Christmas Gift Ideas (part 2)

This one you are going to really like, beautiful and unique camera straps made by artist Em Falconbridge, available at her Etsy Shop. I like the one with elephants

$32

The Flight of The Concorde's first season of their HBO special was released on DVD last week. I told you about them here. This is more a show with a story line, but it includes "Business Time."

Amazon, $19.95

Mom...Look away... I am getting my parents two tickets to see "It's a Wonderful Life" at the Curtain Call Theatre in Tustin. It is playing through December. Perfect for parents or kids. Tickets from $41 – $52. Dinner and "The" Theatre, OC style.

This is one for the guys. If Steve McQueen had a watch, it would look one of these 70's inspired watches from Fossil. You can mix and match the straps and watch pieces to make it look how you like. (Got one for my brother for his b-day and he liked.)

See demo here.

Last one for today, Layla Grayce has these striking picture frames that can be personalized (you know how much I like things to be personalized). Everything at their site is so lovely.
