

Twitter Widget

I have just added Twitter to my blog. I was having trouble getting it up on my site initially and had to write the crack team at Typepad for help—seriously, they are good.

This is part of the message I sent to them..."having problems with my Twitter Widget?" I just think that's funny, Twitter Widget. No point here really.

Does anyone want to Twitter with me? It doesn't hurt or anything, but it does tickle a little...
