

Aloha from Disney's Aulani Resort in Hawaii

When I got the invite to come and cover the opening of the new section of the Aulani Resort in Hawaii, I knew I couldn't come without my kids. I had covered the opening of Aulani (see the coverage here) and PROMISED my kids I wouldn't come again without them.

I kept my promise.

The kids are here with me along with my big brother, Rob. We are having a blast and taking in every Hawaiian moment before we have to head back home tomorrow.
