

Disneyland 60th Diamond Celebration offers special food that you will NOT want to miss

Disneyland kicked off its Diamond Celebration on May 21, 2015. It's hard to believe it's been 60 years since Walt's vision became a reality and the first visitor entered the park. In true Disney style, they have whipped up some very exclusive food offerings that will only be available during the celebration.

I had the chance to interview Disneyland Chef, Cain, about some of the special food items. Then stay tuned for more coverage from the opening days of Disneyland's Diamond Celebration.
