

Finding a new home for my Uncle Bob

This is my Uncle Bob and me. He is 86-years-old and he is moving in to his new retirement home today in Laguna Woods! My brothers and I have spent the last week getting his new pad ready and I—think hope he is going to love it.

Because I have been so busy, I posted “Songs from the 70s rewritten by the artists after they had kids” on the Mom Blog today. This was my list from -McSweeney’s Internet tendencies Lists- it might just be a repeat for some...I did add a few new ones.
