

Happy July 4th!

Love American Style

Love, Love, Love

Love, American Style,

Truer than the Red, White and Blue.

Love, American Style,

That's me and you.

And on a star spangled night my love, (My love come to me).

You can rest you head on my shoulder.

Out by the dawn's early light, my love

I will defend your right to try.

Love, American Style,

That's me and you.

deep sigh

Wait...

"...Defend your right to try"... what?
