

How can I just let you walk away... .

I love to listen to “This American Life” on National Public Radio. I can’t find it on the radio here in Orange County, but listen to it online whenever I can. If you have 20 minutes to spare (ha) or wish to negligently avoid some pressing task like rinsing the shampoo out of your child’s hair, then listen to The Breakup .

The show is usually broken up into “acts”, in this episode the first is Ira Glass interviewing a gal about her break up, the second is Starlee Kine’s story, which is beyond awesome.

It is free, just click “full episode”. Enjoy!

Larry and I listened to this while on our way to Palm Springs for the weekend (The Springs Hotel and Spa).

We stopped to see these prehistoric roadside jems on the way. Gotta love Palm Springs!
