

I got a brand new pair of roller skates

I made this short (1 minute) video about my new roller skates.

I got a brand new pair of roller skates from Suzanne Broughton on Vimeo.

If you are inspired by the video and want to get roller skates, click over to RollerGirl to check some out. Or call and ask for Chelsea. She will hook you up with your very own to cuddle and thrash. You can also get one of these: String Blade Good Luck Charms. You just might need it!
