Let's say you and your husband are locked in a heated debate...the kind that can go on forever and never be resolved without professional help—a word pronunciation debate. Like how IS aioli pronounced? He giggles at you every time you order your upgraded sandwich.

Don't get down, howjsay.com is here to help. Just look up the word in questions and voila: aioli. I KNEW IT!

Other fun thing to do at this site, look up words like "Howdy" or "Frigging." **Squeal** hours of laughs hearing that proper gentlemen say them.
