

Look...up there...a whole new look for me!

As you can see...got my new look on. Thanks to Heather at Bluhm Studios for the banner design and overall look of my blog. She is crazy-talented and fun to work with. If you need help with design on your blog, or website, or business cards, she is your gal.

Also, a very heartfelt thanks to the insanely gifted Vanessa at A Fanciful Twist for the illustration of Hazel and me. If you don't read her blog, you should, it is the most unique and whimsical trip you will take on the internet.
