

Random Weekend: This one goes out to the Blogs I love

Same 'ol bossy behavior, new weekend.

These are blogs I have in my Bloglines. If you don't use Bloglines, you should. (Bossy) So simple to use; create an account (for free), add all of your favorite blogs (I will help you find some new ones), and then throw it up there on your bookmark bar. Bloglines tells you when there is a new post in one of your blogs, helping you keep up with all of your cyber friends. (Hurling you deeper into the abyss of the blog world, Yipee!)
