

Not to be outdone...

My husband put up these two pictures of Duran Duran on our fridge and told all of our Holiday visitors that I put them up because I am still hopelessly in love with John Taylor. "She never stops talking about him," he told everyone. It is a sorry testament of me that my friends all believed him.

(Poor Nick Rhodes, he hasn't aged well and eyeliner on a 40-something-year-old, yikes!)

Not to be outdone by my beloved. I have posted this on the fridge.
