

Let's talk Pop Waffle

Oh, YouTube and your maniacal ways...You have again, lured me in to another spaz-fest of watching videos made genius by your own particular genre...huh? Don't worry, I don't even know what that means...

I have found still another favorite on YouTube—Pop Waffle.

I just about did a spit-take on this one, set to the tune of Alanis Morissette's Ironic.

Pop Waffle is right (smart Pop Waffle)—see definition of irony here. While all the events listed are sad, frustrating or just plain inconsequential they aren't truly ironic. These videos on the other hand—pure hilarity.
