

Vimeo's Orange County Group

I recently joined (thanks Chris) the Orange County Vimeo Group. I am increasingly interested in video and I prefer kind Vimeo to the more brutish YouTube.

If you make videos—feeding your baby, while driving (which is VERY dangerous I have been told by many), or on a more skilled level—check out Vimeo.

If you live in Orange County, join. Join. Join. Join. (You can't see it, but I am tightly grasping a clipboard and pointing a ball point pen at you.)

All of the videos are interesting. I like this one from the group. It's from Lee Uber, "Surfing in Huntington Beach"
